

Third Sunday of EASTER

Welcome to Cross of Christ Lutheran Church

*By God's grace, through faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, we are called to:
Worship God, Grow in faith, Share the Gospel, Serve others, Welcome all*

Today's gospel begins with two disciples walking to Emmaus, overcome with sadness, loss, and disappointment. They had hoped Jesus, who was crucified, would be the one to redeem Israel! Yet the risen Christ walks with them and then opens their eyes in the breaking of the bread. Each Sunday our hearts burn within us as the scriptures are proclaimed and Christ appears to us as bread is broken and wine is poured. The story of Emmaus becomes the pattern of our worship each Lord's day.

WELCOME

Pastor Dave Thomas

AN OPENING LITANY FOR OUR TIME

P We gather – differently.

C Yet we gather, all the same.

P We gather as we are now able, in this time.

C We gather while still separated, longing for our face-to-face reunion.

P We gather – differently – as an act of love, doing all we can to keep safe ourselves, our loved ones, our community, and our world.

C We gather – differently.

P Yet we gather as we always have and always will, in the name of the Father, and of the † Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

- P Let us pray: God of life and love, as we continue to celebrate the good news of Easter, help us live in this life as resurrection people, assured of the life to come. Freed from the fear and finality of death, enable us to have spiritually open eyes, that we might recognize divine encounters offered to us along life's path, and spiritually open hearts to share our experiences with others. This we pray in the name of the Risen One, Christ our Lord,
- C who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

THE FIRST LESSON

Acts 2:14a, 36-41 (NRSV)

Today's reading is the conclusion of Peter's sermon preached following the giving of the Holy Spirit to the apostles on the day of Pentecost. The center of his preaching is the bold declaration that God has made the crucified Jesus both Lord and Christ.

L A reading from Acts.

^{14a}Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed [the crowd], ³⁶"Therefore let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified."

³⁷Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, "Brothers, what should we do?" ³⁸Peter said to them, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. ³⁹For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him." ⁴⁰And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." ⁴¹So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added.

C Thanks be to God!

THE PSALM

Psalm 116:1-4, 12-19 (NRSV)

I will call on the name of the Lord. (Ps. 116:13)

- ¹I love the Lord, who has | heard my voice,
and listened to my | supplication,
²for the Lord has given | ear to me
whenever I called.
- ³The cords of death entangled me; the anguish of the grave | came upon me;
I came to | grief and sorrow.
- ⁴Then I called upon the name | of the Lord:
“O Lord, I pray you, | save my life.”
- ¹²How shall I re- | pay the Lord
for all the good things God has | done for me?
- ¹³I will lift the cup | of salvation
and call on the name | of the Lord.
- ¹⁴I will fulfill my vows | to the Lord
in the presence of | all God’s people.
- ¹⁵Precious in your | sight, O Lord,
is the death | of your servants.
- ¹⁶O Lord, truly I | am your servant;
I am your servant, the child of your handmaid; you have freed me | from my bonds.
- ¹⁷I will offer you the sacrifice | of thanksgiving
and call upon the name | of the Lord.
- ¹⁸I will fulfill my vows | to the Lord
in the presence of | all God’s people,
- ¹⁹in the courts of | the Lord’s house,
in the midst of you, O Jerusalem. | Hallelujah!

THE SECOND LESSON

1 Peter 1:17-23 (NRSV)

The imagery of exile is used to help the readers of this letter understand that they are strangers in a strange land. Christians no longer belong to this age. Through the death of Christ we belong to God, so that our focus, faith, and hope are no longer on such things as silver or gold.

L A reading from First Peter.

¹⁷If you invoke as Father the one who judges all people impartially according to their deeds, live in reverent fear during the time of your exile. ¹⁸You know that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold, ¹⁹but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without defect or blemish. ²⁰He was destined before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of the ages for your sake. ²¹Through him you have come to trust in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are set on God.

²²Now that you have purified your souls by your obedience to the truth so that you have genuine mutual love, love one another deeply from the heart. ²³You have been born anew, not of perishable but of imperishable seed, through the living and enduring word of God.

C Thanks be to God!

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

THE GOSPEL

Luke 24:13-35 (NRSV)

The colorful story of Jesus' appearance to two disciples on the road to Emmaus answers the question of how Jesus is to be recognized among us. Here, he is revealed through the scriptures and in the breaking of bread.

P The Holy Gospel as recorded in St. Matthew the 24th chapter.

C Glory to you, O Lord.

¹³Now on that same day [when Jesus had appeared to Mary Magdalene,] two [disciples] were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, ¹⁴and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. ¹⁵While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, ¹⁶but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. ¹⁷And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?" They stood still, looking sad. ¹⁸Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?" ¹⁹He asked them, "What things?" They replied, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, ²⁰and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. ²¹But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. ²²Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, ²³and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. ²⁴Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him." ²⁵Then he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! ²⁶Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?" ²⁷Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

²⁸As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. ²⁹But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them. ³⁰When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. ³¹Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. ³²They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?" ³³That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. ³⁴They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!" ³⁵Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

C Praise to you, O Christ.

 he that for three days in the grave had lain;
 your touch can call us back to life a - gain,

love lives a - gain, that with the dead has been;
 laid in the earth like grain that sleeps un - seen;
 raised from the dead, my liv - ing Lord is seen;
 fields of our hearts that dead and bare have been;

love is come a - gain like wheat a - ris - ing green.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Each petition ends, "Lord, in your mercy."

To which the congregation responds, "Hear our prayer."

THE LORD'S PRAYER

P Let us pray, as our Lord taught:

C Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

BENEDICTION

P May the God of peace, who raised from the dead our Lord Jesus, still our fears, stir our faith, be salve for our wounds and the source of our joy; and may the blessing of Almighty God, Father, Son † and Holy Spirit, be with you this Holy Easter and forever.

C Amen.
